

In-person Oral History Workshop Signup:

February 5, 2:30 - 4:30

This workshop will be hosted in the Museum Lounge on February 5 from 2:30 - 4:30. Participants will be introduced to the topic of oral history, interview techniques, recording basics, and ethical guidelines. Whether you're working on a community project, building a family archive, or just want to interview your grandmother, this session will give you the tools and confidence to start.
